

Question 1

Not answered

Marked out of 1.00

Lab 4: GroupBY Having and Set Operations

Solve the following questions.

Conditions: Solve without using IN, NOT IN, AND, OR, NOT, keywords

Q1 Find the departments (deptID) having more than 2 instructors earning above 60,000.

deptId
1
2

Q2 Find the department (deptID) that has the second-highest average salary among instructors of the same department. Also display the corresponding average salary.

deptId	avg_salary
2	77000.000000

Q3 Find the year in which the maximum number of sections was offered.

year
2024

Q4 Find the sections (sectionId) that have more than one lab assistant assigned.

sectionId
301
306
311
312
315
316
326

Q5 Find the studentId of students who are not enrolled in any section and are not working as lab assistants

studentId
229
230
227
228

Q6 Identify departments (DeptID) that have lab assistants but do not offer multiple courses.

deptId
6

Q7 List the Instructors (InstructorID) handling more than two sections or who belong to DeptID=3.

instructorId
101
116
121
111
112
113
114
115

Q8 Identify the departments (DeptID) that have exactly one instructor or that have exactly one lab assistant.

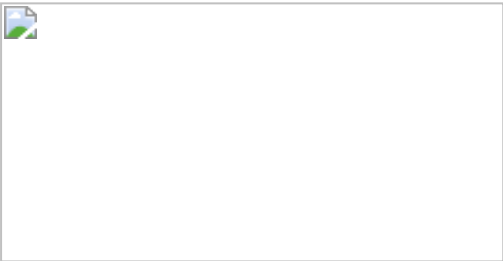

deptId
4
5

Q9 Management defines a "stable department" as one that has at least one student, has at least one instructor, and has at least one course. Identify the stable departments (DeptID).

stable_departments
1
2
3
4

Q10 Departments are considered "at risk" if they have exactly one instructor and more than one course. Identify the at-risk departments (DeptID).

atrisk_departments
4
5

◀ Lab 4 zip file

Jump to...

Lab 4 solution upload link (.sql file) ▶